

The NEXT Student Conference is a catalyst weekend to inspire, encourage, and equip the next generation of servant leaders. On September 24 & 25, middle and high school students will get to experience a full weekend of fun activities, exciting music, and dynamic preaching.

Special Guests

Ronjour Locke serves as Instructor of Preaching and Urban Ministry at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. He also serves as an affiliate pastor for the Acton Institute. Throughout his ministry, he has served as youth pastor, pastor, and professor. He is a regular speaker at youth camps, conferences, and retreats. Dr. Locke holds degrees from Lancaster Bible College and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, and is currently a Ph.D. candidate at Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is happily married to Anne, and they have four children.

Brenan Murphy is a Christian pop artist in Raleigh, NC. "I write songs about what it's like to be human," Murphy shares. His debut single, "All The Wrong Things," features "The Voice" Season 8 finalist Koryn Hawthorne. Invoking the passion of artists such as Alessia Cara and Jon Bellion, and the urban pop sounds of artists such as The Weeknd, Justin Timberlake and ZAYN, the song includes a rap bridge written and performed by Murphy himself. When the single was released, it impacted both radio and streaming platforms. His second single "Enough" was a top 5 song on Hot AC Christian Radio. His most recent single, "Talk About It," is the perfect addition to Branán's growing repertoire of brutally honest, infectious pop songs.
